EMPTY PURSE RECOVERED. That and an Overcoat Found This Morning-Daring Robbery.

About 8 o'clock last evening Mrs. L. W. Hodgins and a lady friend were walking up East Temple street, and as they neared South Temple street, they were startled by a youth who dashed a memorial to him it would be as near up to them and seizing Mrs. Hodgins' an approach to his wishes as can be purse, ran in the direction of the Eagle The ladies and a gentleman who saw the daring robbery, took after the fellow, but he was too fleet of foot for them, and made good his escape. The purse contained about $8 in silver, and some papers.

This morning a gentleman by th name of Allen, who resides at 110 north State street, upon going into the back yard, found what proved to be Mrs.
Hodgins' purse, and an overcoat. The coat is of small size, and is the same as worn by the young robber. The purse was empty. Officer Hilton went to Mr. Allen's and took the articles to the police station.

TRUSTEES HELD A MEETING

The Condition is that One of the Nev Structures Shall be Called the Brigham Young Memorial Building.

According to a call that had been made the trustees of the Young University held a meeting yesterday afternoon, in the office of President Snow to further consider the proposition of deeding to the Latter-day Saints College, the property in the Eighteenth ward that was set aside by the late President Brigham Young as a site for the University. The personnel of the board of trustees of the Young University was as follows before death invaded the ranks of its members: Brigham Young, John W. Young, Hyrum S. Young, Willard Young, Jos ph D. C. Young, George Reynolds, Le Grand Young, R. W. Young, Wilford Woodruff, Karl G. Maeser, George Q. Cannon, O. F. Whitney, Joseph F. Smith, Spencer Clawson, Lorenzo Snow, W. W. Riter, Moses Thatcher, James E. Talmage, James Sharp, F. M. Lyman, T. W. Jennings, J. H. Smith, H. J. Grant, A. H. Cannon, Maria Y. Dougall and Priscilla P. Jennings.

Those present at the meeting were: Brigham Young, H. S. Young, J. D. C. Young, Lorenzo Snow, Thomas W. Jennings, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Dougall, James Sharp, Joseph F. Smith, James E. Talmage, John Henry Smith, F. M. Lyman, H. J. Grant, Spencer Clawson George Reynolds also Joseph E. Taylor The majority of those present favored the giving of a quit claim deed to the Eighteenth ward property to the Lat-ter-day Saints College board with the understanding that one of the new structures shall be called the Brigham Young Memorial building. There is no clean title to the land, because there are a few minor heirs. But it is held that if the deed is signed it may obviate the necessity of going into court to clear the

Brigham Young, chairman of the board, was appointed a committee of one to wait on the trustees of the Latter-day Saints' College to see if they would accept the transfer on the conditions stated above. He is to report at a meeting to be held in the near future, when it is believed that the neces-sary two-thirds of the board will vote in favor of the transfer. The late Pres-ident Young set aside the beautiful site in the Eighteenth ward for the seat of the Church university, but he died before he could carry out his intentions. It has always been and is now the desire of the trustees to carry out the wishes of President Young, but they haven't the funds to erect a building, and they feel that by transferring the property to the Latter-day Saints' lege and having one building erected as olied with.

At the next meeting of the board it is expected that three new members will be elected to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Wilford Woodruff, by the death of Wilford Woodruff Abraham H. Cannon and Karl G. Mae

COPELAND DISCHARGED.

Justice Timmony Lets Him Go With a Wholesome Lecture.

John Copeland, who has been in jail for several days, awaiting a hearing on the charge of criminally assaulting a sixteen-year-old girl named Katie Knox, was yesterday afternoon taken before Judge Timmony. His case was not reached until nearly four o'clock, and upon the recommendation of County Attorney Christensen, the defendant was allowed to plead guilty to simply assault. In speaking of the case, Judge Timmony said to the accused:

"Had it not been for the request of the county attorney, the motion would not have been allowed, and it is at his suggestion that I shall impose no punishment at this time, he having shown that the defendant has been in jail since March 12th. The court wants say to the defendant, however, that he knows of no crime more despicable than enticing young girls into wine-rooms and lodging-houses, where the men do as they please, so far as the proprietors are concerned. The court really feels that greater punishment than has been given the defendant should be meted out, but as the county attorney does not think so, the defend-ant will be discharged. I hope, however, Copeland, that this will be a lesson to you, and I would advise you never to come before this court again on any similar charge."

Copeland promised to behave himself in the future, and left the court room.
